Group XXIII, claim(s) 101-103, drawn to a planted field comprising cotton plants A-83 and R-208.

Group XXIV, claim(s) 104, drawn to a planted field comprising cotton plants B-83 and R-208.

Group XXV, claim(s) 105-106, drawn to a method of developing a hybrid cotton plant utilizing a first cotton plant selected from the group consisting of A-195, A-175, A-34, A-14 and A-83 and a second cotton plant selected from the group consisting of R-205 and R-208 as breeding material.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-XXIV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The inventions are linked by the technical feature of hybrid cotton plants. However, this feature is not special because it does not constitute an advance over the prior art. Tal (U.S. Patent No. 5,516,979, May 14, 1996) teaches a hybrid cotton plant (see, for example, column 2, line 46 to column 4, line 13).

3. Furthermore, the special technical feature of Group I is considered to be hybrid cotton plant 'INTERCOTT-35'.

4. The special technical feature of group II is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant developed by utilizing cotton lines A-195 and R-208.

5. The special technical feature of group III is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants A-195 and R-208.

6. The special technical feature of group IV is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants B-195 and R-208.

7. The special technical feature of group V is considered to be hybrid cotton plant designated 'INTERCOTT-51'.

8. The special technical feature of group VI is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant utilizing cotton lines A-151 and R-208 as breeding material.

The special technical feature of group VII is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants A-151 and R-208.

9. The special technical feature of group VIII is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants B-151 and R-208.

10. The special technical feature of group IX is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant designated 'INTERCOTT-75'.

11. The special technical feature of group X is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant produced by utilizing cotton lines A-175 and R-208 as breeding material.

12. The special technical feature of group XI is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants A-175 and R-208.

13. The special technical feature of group XII is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants B-175 and R-208.

14. The special technical feature of group XIII is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant designated 'INTERCOTT-34'.

15. The special technical feature of group XIV is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant produced by utilizing cotton lines A-34 and R-208 as breeding material.

16. The special technical feature of group XV is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants A-34 and R-208.

17. The special technical feature of group XVI is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants B-34 and R-208.

18. The special technical feature of group XVII is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant designated 'INTERCOTT-145'.

19. The special technical feature of group XVIII is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant produced by utilizing cotton lines A-14 and R-205 as breeding material.

20. The special technical feature of group XIX is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants A-14 and R-205.

21. The special technical feature of group XX is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants B-14 and R-205.

22. The special technical feature of group XXI is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant designated 'INTERCOTT-83'.

23. The special technical feature of group XXII is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant produced by utilizing cotton lines A-83 and R-208 as breeding material.

24. The special technical feature of group XXIII is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants A-83 and R-208.

25. The special technical feature of group XXIV is considered to be a planted field comprising cotton plants B-83 and R-208.

26. The special technical feature of group XXV is considered to be a hybrid cotton plant produced by utilizing a first cotton plant selected from the group consisting of A-195, A-175, A-34, A-14 and A-83 and a second cotton plant selected from the group consisting of R-205 and R-208 as breeding material.

27. Therefore, for all the reasons discussed above Groups I-XXV lack unity.

Conclusion

Art Unit: 1638

28. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
